Vienna, January 9. N. S.

THE 6th Inſtant the Sieur Oſten, a Colonel in the Daniſh Forces, arrived here from Tranſilvania: He had the Misfortune to be taken Priſoner on the 7th of the laſt Month by a Party of Hungarians, and had Leave given him to come hither on his Parole for 6 Weeks, in order to ſollicit his being exchanged for Monſieur Verville, a French Colonel. Colonel Oſten left Prince Ragotzi the 16th at Eczed, from whence he intended to go towards Monkate, to ſee the new Fortifications that are making there; and he was afterwards expected at Tolzal, a Caſtle belonging to his Aunt, the Counteſs Erdodi, not above a day's Journey from Tirnau. Count Berzeni went from Tirnau the 2d paſt, as is ſuppoſed, to the Siege of Oedenbourg, in which Place there is a ſmall Gariſon of 300 Men, but commanded by Baron Winthenheim, a brave and experienced Officer, who, as is reported, has repulſed the Enemy in three ſeveral Attempts they made to ſcale the Walls in the night; whereupon they are ſaid to have withdrawn their Forces from before that Place. An Officer arrived here laſt night from Prince Eugene, with Letters dated the 2d Inſtant from his Head Quarter at Carzago, giving an Account, That the French Army marched away from the Neighbourhood of Lonato the 26th paſt; and the Imperial Army did the like 3 days after; ſo that the Campaign is now quite ended on that ſide, and both Armies are ſeparated, and marched into Winter Quarters.

Berlin, January 16. Monſieur Mardvelt arrived here the 3d Inſtant, with Letters from the Court of Heſſe-Caſſell, to notify the Death of the Princeſs Royal, Daughter to the King of Pruſſia; and on the 5th Monſieur Tettau, one of his Majeſty's Chamberlains, was diſpatched to that Court with a Compliment of Condoleance from his Majeſty to the Prince of Heſſe-Caſſell upon that melancholly Occaſion. Monſieur Ilten, one of the Elector of Hanover's Privy-Councellors, arrived here the 9th, and had Audience the 11th of his Majeſty, to whom he made a Compliment of Condoleance, in the Name of the Elector his Maſter, upon the Death of the Princeſs Royal. The Pruſſian Forces and Recruits, which according to the late Treaty for that purpoſe are ſent to Prince Eugene's Aſſiſtance, are marching towards Italy with all poſſible expedition, and will join his Highneſs very early the next Campaign. They write from Warſaw, That the Swedes had paſſed the Weiſſell, carrying with them Materials for making Bridges to paſs the Bugg likewiſe, in order to attack the Muſcovites; and that the King of Poland having Intelligence of their Motions, had ordered General Menzikof, with a great part of the Muſcovite Forces, towards Pultausk, where there was already 10000 Foot and 6000 Horſe; and had poſted the reſt of his Troops in the Paſſes and Woods, his Majeſty appearing reſolved to wait for the Swedes; ſo that we may probably hear of ſome Action on that ſide.

Francfort, Jan. 16. We hear the Imperialiſts have retaken Cham in the Upper Palatinate; and there being now a conſiderable Body of regular Troops in Bavaria, it is not doubted but the Inſurrection there will ſoon be ſuppreſſed. General Kirchbaum lately attacked a Body of 5000 Malecontents near Braunau, whom he entirely routed, many of them being killed upon the ſpot, and divers taken Priſoners: And this continuation of ill Succeſs will we hope not a little contribute to their being perſwaded to lay down their Arms. The 14th Inſtant the Princeſs of Baden was ſafely delivered of a Prince at Raſtad.

Hague, January 22. N. S. The States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland continue aſſembled, having under Conſideration what Supplies will be neceſſary for this Year's Service, and how they ſhall be raiſed. The Convoy for Lisbon is fitting out with all poſſible diligence. The King of Spain has appointed the Count de Goeſſen to have the Adminiſtration of his Revenue in the Netherlands, particularly in the Dutchy of Limbourg, in the room of Count Zinzendorf. Monſieur Van Stucken, who was appointed to be Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark to Her Majeſty of Great Britain, having received Orders from Copenhagen to return thither, will accordingly leave this Place in few days. Monſieur Roſencrantz went from hence 3 days ago, in order to return likewiſe to Copenhagen. Letters from Madrid of the firſt Inſtant confirm the Account we had before by the way of France, of a Tumult at Saragoſſa, occaſioned by the Marſhal de Teſſe's having, without any Regard to the Privileges of that City, cauſed ſeveral of the Burghers to be impriſoned, upon Suſpicion of their being affected to the Houſe of Auſtria. The Burghers took up Arms to reſcue the Priſo[illegible], and in this Diſpute there were
